Foundational Practice: Sharing Your Story

This week, we will be focusing on our foundational practice of Sharing Your Story (1 Peter 3:15). We have the opportunity to share what God did and is still doing in our lives today. As we learn to recognize God's work in and around us, we can point others back to Christ's ongoing work in our lives. We are continuing to be transformed into Christlikeness. As we enter a new era for our church with our new Clovis Campus, what's one way you can share your story of God's faithfulness to you through your time at The Well?

1. In what ways are you sharing your story with your family, neighbors, or coworkers? What part of sharing your story is hardest for you to accept/apply on a daily basis?
2. What's one thing from last weekend's sermon that you hope we talk about as a group?
3. Have someone recap the message in about a minute or two and then ask the following questions: Looking at your sermon notes, what statement or questions were you most challenged or convicted by?

“Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.”

-MATTHEW 5:16

4. What's one way you felt encouraged in your relationship with God last week? One way you felt stuck or you are struggling?
5. If you were to incorporate the teaching from this sermon and its related Scriptures into your own life, how would your life be different next week? Next year?

CLOSING CHALLENGE

What ways has your life been impacted through being shown grace and truth at The Well? Consider praying about who to share that with? Remember our story can be a beacon of light to someone sitting in darkness and in desperate need of the love of Christ.
